To Whom it May Concern:

Mrs Maria Chiru has worked as a teacher of Child Care, Health and Social Care , Psychology and IT, at the Neale Wade Academy for 9 years. In the last seven years, Mrs Chiru has also fulfilled the role of Head of Faculty-Vocational Education and Diploma Line Lead for Fenland Partnership. During this time she has consistently displayed excellent communication skills and an exceptional commitment to the Academy. She has the ability to rapidly develop relationships and rapport with all individuals including students and teaching staff.

Mrs Chiru has worked extensively with outside agencies and has demonstrated a very strategic approach to all aspects of her work. She is an outstanding professional and all of her students have benefited from her meticulous planning and first rate delivery in the classroom. Members of staff have been mentored by Mrs Chiru to good effect and they have all progressed and developed their classroom practice under her expert guidance.

Mrs Chiru is very adept as a teacher and as a presenter and she is able to speak with authority and confidence to large groups of people.

As a Head of Faculty, Mrs Chiru has always been thorough and accurate in her work and she always manages to hit any deadlines for work to be completed. One of her main strengths is her ability to build relationships with her work colleagues. She has an excellent sense of humour and is able to lead from the front or work as part of a team to ensure the maximum impact with both students and staff.

I recommend her for any suitable post without reservation.

Yours faithfully
